Nicola (a florist) and Dean had an idea during Covid 19 about opening a shop in their hometown Bath that would combine plants and music. And Chapter 22, Roots and Records was born. They wanted it to showcase who they are as people and their passion for the music from the 80s, especially the post punk, alternative scene.

Visiting the store is an absolute must – it's not just a shop but a destination, where a warm welcome always awaits.
